

Marley & Me

What Kind of Dog Are You?

Marley, may have been described as "the world's worst dog," but the adorable yellow Labrador from Marley & Me is also loving and loyal – just what a dog should be. With such extremes in personality, we wondered how Marley would describe himself if given the opportunity. But, since we'll probably never know, we thought it would be fun to figure out how well we judge ourselves.

Do you think you're a loving yellow Labrador like Marley? Take this doggy personality quiz to see what kind of a dog you think you are.

1. When introduced to someone new, you:

- Look them in the eye, shake their hand and clearly say your name.
- Barely look up from your Nintendo DS to grumble a quick hello.
- Shoot them a quick smile, but are too shy to say anything.

2. When eating dinner, you:

- Sit up straight and use your napkin.
- Shovel a bunch of food into your mouth and rush off.
- Make sure you don't overeat while still trying a little bit of everything to ensure you don't hurt any cook's feelings.

3. When hanging out with friends, you:

- Make sure you include everyone in the conversation and check to ensure everyone's having a good time.
- Plan what you want to do and see if your friends feel like joining you.
- Happily go along with what the rest of the group wants to do.

4. When your parents have friends over, you:

- Always stop to say hello and chat for a bit, remembering their names.
- Walk stealthily through the house, so you won't get stuck making small talk with boring old people.

- Come out to say hello when prompted by your parents, smile pleasantly, but go back to what you were doing as soon as you can.

5. When you go to the doctor's office, you...

- Are the nurses favorite and always get a treat for being so good.
- Protest loudly. You don't want to go to the doctor's office and want everyone to know it.
- Sit in the waiting room quietly, terrified of what is to come.

6. If there's trouble, you...

- Try to fix it.
- Probably started it.
- Run the other way.

7. Your favorite weekend activity is...

- Spending time with your family.
- Playing sports, going skateboarding, snowboarding and anything that gets your adrenaline pumping.
- Sleeping in late and staying home where you know you're safe.

8. During recess at school, you...

- Stay and help the teacher set up the next lesson.
- Can be found wreaking havoc on the playground. Recess is too short for all the energy you have.
- Sit under a tree away from the crowd reading a book.

So what kind of canine are you? Find out below.

If you answered mostly A's, you are a truly remarkable companion. Thoughtful, polite and sweet, you would make a great dog – most likely a German Shepherd or a Border Collie.

If your answers are mostly B's, you live life by your own rules – and are sometimes considered unruly. You and Marley would probably get along great, since you'd most likely be a rambunctious Labrador too.

If you answered mostly C's, you are a sweet, shy, lovable companion who would most likely be a Greyhound.
